

2020 Warrens Cranberry Festival Scholarship Awards

Each year, the Festival awards up to $3,000 in scholarships to local students to help them achieve their higher educational goals. The awards were presented to six individuals. This year a Virtual Awards Program was held due to the current conditions.

This year's scholarship recipients are:

Riley Krultz of Warrens, WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc., Scholarship and is pursuing a degree in Finance & Accounting at the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire

Ellie Eswein, of Tomah WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc., Scholarship and is pursuing a degree in Early Childhood Special Education at the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire.

Ethen Jewell, of Tomah, WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc. Scholarship and is pursuing a degree at the University of Wisconsin— Whitewater.

Sarah Peterson of Tomah, WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc., Scholarship and is pursuing a degree as a Nurse-Nurse Practitioner at the Viterbo University.

Colby Von Haden of Tomah WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc. Scholarship and is pursuing a degree at University of Wisconsin—River Falls

Ayris Sue Modica, of Tomah, WI, was awarded a $500 Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc. Scholarship and is pursuing a degree as a Forensic Scientist at the University of Wisconsin - Platteville

Congratulations to all of these worthy students and good luck in your future endeavors!

Ellie

Ethen

Riley

Sarah

Ayris

Colby