Warrens Cranberry Festival Announces the 2018 Biggest Berry Contest Rules Are Available

WARRENS, WISCONSIN, July 13, 2018—Warrens Cranberry Festival announces the rules are available for the 2018 Biggest Berry Contest.

This contest is open to the public, including, but not limited to, growers, growers' families and employees.

Collection Sites: Cranberries can be dropped off at the following places:

Ocean Spray-Babcock Receiving Station (Necedah Road, Babcock) September 24 and September 25, during normal business hours 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. All entries must be dropped off at this location no later than 3:00 p.m. on September 25, 2018.

Festival Office (402 Pine Street, Warrens) any time between 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., September 24, and September 25, 2018. All entries must be received by 4:30 p.m., September 25, 2018.

Please place each cranberry in a separate Ziploc bag and include the entrant's name, address, and telephone number. Please include the variety of each berry and marsh in which it came from.

Judging: There are over 100 different varieties of cranberries and any variety may be entered. All entries and winners will be on display, September 28 & 29, 2018, at the contest site, the Wetherby Stone Building, 103 Main Street, Warrens. Warrens.

Blue ribbons will be awarded for the largest cranberry in each variety/class. The Biggest Cranberry of Show winner will receive a $45 cash prize & trophy, sponsored by Potter Cranberry Co., of Warrens, WI.

Cranberries will be judged by weight in grams rather than by volume. In the case of a tie, the berries will be measured for overall length and diameter to determine the winner.

Contest rules are available at the Warrens Cranberry Festival. www.cranfest.com, 608-378-4200, office@cranfest.com.

Dates for the 46th Annual Warrens Cranberry Festival are September 28-30, 2018.

The purpose of the Warrens Cranberry Festival shall be to promote the common good and general welfare of the community of Warrens, including holding an annual community festival and raising funds to be used exclusively for civic betterments and social improvements in the Warrens community.
